Libraries to receive funding

Local community libraries benefited recently in grants from the provincial government. The Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library received $443,835 and the Uxbridge Township Public Library Board was granted $33,807 under the program which gave more than $3.8 million to libraries across the province. The funding, granted by the Ontario Ministry of Culture and Communications, was given to 65 libraries in total, and represents a funding increase of four per cent over last year, according to a release.
