

Local band takes first place

Stouffville resident Rob Morin knows the value of hard work and practice.

The Elm Road residents just returned from the American Guild of Music regional competition in Novi, Michigan, where his band, Jester's Whisper, won first place in the senior Battle of the Bands category.

In addition, the band took a first in the instrumental "Orkette" competition, playing "Crushing Day" by Joe Satriani and "Mr. Scary" by George Lynch and Jeff Pilson.

Their rendition of "Classical Gas" in the Ensemble competition brought in another first-place showing.

Other competitors in the regional competition came from all across southern Ontario and the U.S. midwest.

Members of the Jester's Whisper include Paul Granger (vocals), Greg Steffan (lead guitar), Chris Bayliss (bass guitar), Kevin Chocorlan (rhythm guitar and keyboards) and Mr. Morin (drums and percussion).

The band originated at Carlaw Conservatory in Markham.

Strawberry Festival prizes given away

Cathy McNaughton's R.R. 4 Stouffville won the first prize limited edition print of the Stouffville train station in the York-Durham Heritage Railway draw held during the Strawberry Festival.

The second prize, a $25 gift certificate from John Lord Books, was won by P. Townend of R.R. 1 Goodwood.

The third prize, a sweat shirt and hat with the Strawberry Festival logo was won by Diane Bullock of Stouffer Street in Stouffville.
