Line dancers perform at Parkview

More than 100 line dancers from as far away as Sarasota, Florida, performed at Parkview Village recently in a get-together organized by Bruce and Bunny Burton.

"They also came from Michigan, Oakville and Peterborough, and we had a busload from Toronto," said Bunny.

"We had about 90 people for lunch downstairs. These people will go anywhere to dance. The first thing they said was 'when will we do this again?"

The dancers ranged in age from 40 to 85 and performed about 40 dances.

Bruce and Sue tie the knot

Tribune sports reporter and columnist Bruce Stapley and Summitview teacher Sue Lavine were married on Saturday, July 7th at Mill Run Golf and Country Club in Uxbridge.

The service was conducted in a beautiful gazebo beside a pond on a perfect summer evening, with Pastor Herb Gale of St. James Presbyterian Church officiating.

A dinner and dance followed the ceremony, and Ged Stonehouse did a fine job as M.C.

The newlyweds enjoyed some impromptu serenading by their guests before taking to the dance floor. It was with great difficulty that Bruce tore himself away from the local sports scene to take a honeymoon in the Greek Islands, where pitchers' mounds are a rare, if not unknown, phenomenon.

Veteran guider still involved

Although Barb Hie stepped down as district Girl Guide Commissioner last month, she is still very much part of the Guiding movement.

"I received my Blue Thanks Badge at our camp at Shadow Lake on June 2nd. It's going to be hard getting used to the change, but I'm still involved; I'm with division now in public relations," she stated.

She started out as a Brownie leader 13 years ago, and went on to become a badge tester before taking up the role of commissioner in 1985.

"I'd set up a new system for testing and then we needed a commissioner, or the Stouffville area was going to close."

Mrs. Hie may decide to offer her services as a unit leader in the fall, but in the meantime she's enjoying a well-deserved summer break.

Jean Mann succeeds her as the new district commissioner.

Ex-librarian back for a visit

George Schlubbier, who was chief librarian at Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library until two years ago, arrived in town for a holiday with his wife Maureen and their family on Saturday, July 6.

The Schlubbiers spent a few days with Maureen's mother, Violet Lucoe, and visited old friends at the library, before heading up to their island retreat on Horsehoe Lake, in Parry Sound.

They spent more time in Stouffville before returning to Sacramento, California, on July 26th.

Mr. Schlubbier left Stouffville to pursue a career with the Sacramento Bee newspaper.

"Things are going very well for them, and they're enjoying life in California," Mrs. Lucoe told The Tribune.

Newcomer welcomed

Ian MacKenzie, who arrived in June from Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, officially took over from Grant Larmar at Canadian Tire on July 5th.

Originally from Toronto, Mr. MacKenzie left his dealership in Essex, Ontario six and a half years ago to run the company's store in North Sydney.

He has been with Canadian Tire for the past 18 years.

While he enjoyed his stint on the east coast, he jumped at the chance to come to Stouffville.

"We bought our first house in Ajax in 1966 and my wife's mother still lives there; we also have a married daughter in the Ajax-Pickering area. This is home to us."

He and his wife Darlene have bought a house in town, and will move in on August 8th.

The couple's 17 year old daughter plans to go to Stouffville District Secondary School this fall as a grade 12 student and his son in his third year at Dalhousie University.

Students visit Indian reserve

Sixteen local students from Grades 7 to 13 were members of a team from Springvale Baptist Church which recently spent a week on the Garden River Indian Reserve in Sault Ste. Marie.

"We left on June 30th and came back on July 7th," said pastoral intern Brian Simcoe.

The program was initiated when church representatives approached Abe and Shirley Janzen, who are missionaries on the reserve, and asked how they could help them out.

"We put on a kind of backyard Bible club and did puppet shows at the band office on the reserve," explained Simcoe.

They also performed in the parks, at city hall and in the community centre.

"The puppet show is the hook that brings the kids in. Then we talk to them about what it means to be in a Bible club."

The team also organized games and crafts for the children on the reserve and went swimming with them.

They will be offering the same program at local camps and parks throughout the summer.

All students were given the opportunity to be involved and all benefitted from a valuable learning experience, noted Simcoe.

The church is hoping to offer one or two such programs every year on different reserves.

Gormley News Friends visit from Indiana

Miss Carrie Anne Tussey, of Indiana, is spending several weeks' holidays with her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. Marlin Ressler. They attended Camp Kahquah near Magnetawan this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hogg visited their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Craig Hogg and family, in Elliot Lake. Mr. Lloyd Steckley was involved in a car accident last week.

He has torn ligaments in his right ankle and is on crutches.

A number of Gormley people are attending the Family Camp of the Missionary Church in Stayner. Mrs. Bruce Benson and Mrs. Lorena Sayers attended the conference of the Canadian Missionary Churches in Calgary last week.

Misses Freda Henderson and Dorothy Good attended the World-Mennonite Conference in Winnipeg.

Several people from Heise Hill attended the International Brethren in Christ Mission Rally at the Niagara Christian College in Fort Erie recently.

Mr. Tom Christilaw, of Blind River, passed away in Laurentian Hospital in Sudbury early on Saturday, July 21. He is survived by his wife, the former Ruth Gooding of Gormley, daughters Dr. Jan of White Rock B.C., Jill of Sudbury, Allison of London, sons Scott of North Bay, and Tim at home, and two grandsons: Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Gooding, Mrs. Eldon Gooding, Mrs. Allan Doner, Mrs. Lynn Rieck, and Mrs. Marlyn Doner attended the funeral.

INVITATION TO COMMENT DRAFT RURAL AREA POLICY INCLUDING LOCATIONAL CRITERIA FOR GOLF COURSES

At the request of Pickering Town Council, Planning staff has prepared Planning Report No. 7/90 addressing locational criteria for golf courses.

During the review, staff concluded that golf course policies should be developed in the context of an overall rural area policy. Thus, the draft policy includes general rural area policies plus specific golf course policies.

On June 25, 1990, Town Council received Planning Report No. 7/90 and requested that it be circulated to the community for comment and further input.

Pickering residents, landowners and other interested individuals are invited to submit comments on the draft policy to the Town Planning Department. Copies of Planning Report No. 7/90 are available to be picked up from the Planning Department, Pickering Civic Complex, One the Esplanade, or you may request that a copy be mailed to you by calling the Town Planning Department at 420-4617 or 683-2760.

Comments are requested by August 31, 1990. For further information, contact Miss Catherine Rose, the Planner handling the review, at the telephone numbers above.
