

Crossen, Nye and Hammond tops at Twilight tourney

The Stouffville team of Eleanor Crossen, Norm Nye, and Bill Hammond took the High Three Game honors at the Stouffville Lawn Bowling Club's Twilight Open Trebles Tournament recently. Another Stouffville threesome had the second best three game total, with Elmer Farthing, Julie Clubine, and Judy Wideman earning runner up status. John Wheatley's Agincourt team won the competition's High Two Game award. Everitt Hammond, Laurie Redshaw and Sylvia Bishop of Stouffville were High One Game winners.

In other recent action, the Stouffville duo of Eleanor Crossen and Edna Mashinter captured the High One Game honors at the Aurora Ladies Doubles Tournament July 23.

Two Stouffville teams also had strong showings at the Uxbridge Mixed Trebles Tournament. Merlyn Baker, Queenie Bound, and Audrey Gibson were High Two Game winners, while Elmer Farthing, Doris Farthing, and Everitt Hammond were the second place High Three Game unit.

Stouffville Pee Wees earn revenge over Port Perry with 17-8 win

Lindsay Haylow scored three runs to lead the Stouffville Bouwmeister Pee Wees to a 17-8 win over Port Perry recently.

The victory helped the Stouffville crew gain a measure of revenge, as they had fallen to the Port Perry in the Bouwmeister Pee Wee Tournament earlier. Steve Uren, Lester Acosta, Dane Clarke, Michael Underwood, Brad Hackett and Tom Hammond each scored twice for the winners.

The Bouwmeister boys put up a strong fight the next night, as they hosted league-leading Thornhill. But the visitors scored four times in the fourth inning to put the lock on a 6-1 victory. Haylow pitched a strong game for Stouffville, with Clarke and Uren making several impressive catches.
