Gormley news

Sider family visits in Pennsylvania

Mary Reaman was moved recently by ambulance to Markham Stouffville Hospital after five weeks in Huntsville Hospital following a stroke. Her address is 381 Church St., Box 1800, Markham, L3T 7P3.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the family of Miss Audrey Leary, who was killed in a car accident. She is survived by her sisters Marie Duncan and Gladys Allen and many nieces and nephews. Audrey lived all her life in Gormley and is a retired principal with the York County Board of Education. A private funeral service was held in the chapel of the Marshall Funeral Home in Richmond Hill.

Belated congratulations to Mrs. Rose Brodie, who was the guest at an open house on the occasion of her 90th birthday on Saturday at the Victoria Square Community Centre.

Mrs. Martha Wideman welcomed her fourth great grandchild, a daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Crumb, of Welland, recently.

Mrs. Ray Winger of Listowell spent a weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sider enjoyed a few days with relatives and friends in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Dorothy Wideman and Mrs. John Hall attended the Passion Play in Arkansas. Mr. John Hall spent time with his daughter in Wainfleet.

Mrs. Tom Christilaw, of Blind River, visited relatives and friends in the area for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Volpe and daughters, of Pickering, had dinner recently with their grandmother, Mrs. Martha Wideman.

Sixteen ladies from Heise Hill Church attended the annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary at the Brethren in Christ Church in Stayner.

Sympathy is expressed to the family of Mrs. E.J. Wideman, who died early Tuesday morning at St. Michael's Hospital. She is survived by her husband Elvin, daughter Dawn and her husband Neal Costin, sons Dennis and Michael and her mother-in-law Mrs. Martha Wideman. A private family service was held at Uxbridge United Church on Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hawkins enjoyed the weekend with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Atkinson, in Atwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Simpson and baby daughter were guests on Sunday of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bookalam in Big Bay Point.

Mrs. George Yake and Mrs. Albert Yake, of Atwood, visited relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bryson, of Bradford, and Mr. and Mrs. Darrin Shaw, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cam Bryson.

Mr. and Mrs. Sollenberger and son, of Pennsylvania, visited with Rev. and Mrs. Marlin Ressler.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yake celebrate their 50th anniversary Nov. 10 with an open house at Parkview Village.
