Below, Penny, dressed in his Christmas best, surveys the scene during the annual Kinsman parade.
