Crusade for 'knight in rusty armor' not worth it

Dear Editor,
There seems to be a knight in rusty armor riding along Darky's Lane in Lemonville.

He's swinging a beat-up old mace with all the stingers missing against the Lemonville Community Centre and David Fockler's new house.

Why? Good question. It seems that all the problems of our town were dumped into a basket and two were drawn.

These are the ones the knight pounced on.

The reasons for this are very murky, probably even to the knight himself.

Fockler's road is in better shape than many miles of township roads, and as far as the usage of our community centre goes, if the traffic to and from the centre gets any heavier, I'll move out my house which is right beside it.

I suggest the knight inform himself of the facts and figures by asking the right people, and by looking up the right statistics.

He's going to be mightily impressed.

There are four regular groups meeting every week; there are auctions every month; and there are reunions, weddings, anniversaries and other events.

His "facts" seem to be picked off a dead apple tree standing in a (to him) unfamiliar location.

As for Fockler's road, there is more gravel there than was spread on our famous township mud roads in years.

There are many other important things in this town to be concerned with, so lay off Mr. Tatone.

You are losing more friends than you thought you had. The crusade isn't worth it.

Sincerely,
Hans Hirsch,
Lemonville

Outrage over defeat of gun bill

Dear Editor,
The following is an open letter to Prime Minister Brian Mulroney.

On this day, exactly one year since the murder of 14 women at L'Ecole Polytechnique in Montreal, I am writing to you to express my outrage at the defeat of Bill C-80 in the House of Parliament last week.

This is the bill your government introduced, presumably now as only a token gesture after the grisly shooting, to legislate more stringent gun control measures.

The gun lobby has caused your government to knuckle under and allow more Canadians to be at risk.

Apparently the cowboys from "Lone Star" Alberta were concerned about their ability to continue to shoot "varmint."

Shame on you and your government for ignoring the fact that there were more petitioners in favor of this bill than were against.

Better controls over the rapid fire type of guns which are, after all, only used to kill, are the only recourse for a responsible government.

Any expression of grief or concern by you or your government concerning the Montreal massacre, in the face of this poor performance, is merely cosmetic and a sham.

Sincerely,
Shelley Munro Galloway,
Uxbridge
