Stouffville gets ready for Christmas

Area tree farms have been bustling in recent weeks as local residents choose their Christmas trees for decoration. A wide selection of evergreens were there for the cutting at the many tree farms in the Stouffville area. Human tree John Ludbrook (below right) welcomes visitors to the Ludbrook tree farm while (bottom right) young Laura Pitkin gets a different perspective on things while riding in her sleigh at Drysdale Tree Farm. Cutting down his own tree and getting it into the car involves a bit of work for Tarvo Kass, who spent a part of his Saturday at Drysdale Tree Farm. Choosing a tree that is just right for the living room is a decision that involves the whole family. This tree seems to meet the expectations of this group as they make their way to the check out at Drysdale's. And what's a day out in the cold without toasted marshmallows? Francesca Aceti, 3, takes a bite with the help of her father, Emilio, while they were out searching for their tree.
