

A CHRISTMAS PLUMBING TALE

T'was the day after Christmas, and throughout the town,
Not one dripping faucet was there to be found.
St. Newmarch had been there, the plumber superb,
He'd covered the cities, the farms and suburbs.

He snuck through the drain pipe, with six little elves.
Then Glen fixed the toilet, while Donny built shelves.
They'd renovate bathrooms, install shiny taps,
Then hop in the van and review their maps.

On Donny, on Mikey, on Billy, on Norm,
Drive away, drive away, right through the storm.
On Pedro, on Kurtis, on Glen and on Ben,
They finished their service, those good plumbing men.
They went to the homes of all good girls and boys
And fixed all their plumbing, not making a noise.

They put in mum's dishwasher, fixed dad's work sink,
Put in a whirlpool, then quick as a wink,
They were off to the next house in need of repair.
To renovate, renovate, fix it with care.

So now you all know just what happened last night
And why your old plumbing is now shining bright.
'Cause Newmarch the plumber stopped in for a while
And fixed all your plumbing with speed and with style.

So come the new year, if your plumbing needs care,
Just give us a call and we'll be right there.
As for our first year here, we'd just like to say,
You've made us so welcome, we think we'll just stay
To do your repairs of all size and type.
So Merry Christmas to all, all to all a good pipe.

Merry
Christmas
