Girls edged out by boys in battle of the sexes

It was the battle of the sexes at the Rec Centre last Saturday evening.

And while the Angie's Pee Wee Girls Rep. hockey team were a stride ahead of their Ringwood Gas Bar boys house league opponents, the boys used their booming shots to eke out a 4-3 win.

Stephanie Summerhill, Jenni Turner, and Jennifer Williams counted goals for Angie's in the exhibition contest.

It was the second game of the day for the Angie's girls, who lost a 2-1 squeaker to Scarborough that morning. Julie Comito managed the lone Angie's score from Laura Winterstein.

The previous evening, it was Alison Vankoughnet providing the Angie's squad with shutout goaltending in a 2-0 victory over Orangeville.

Comito and Williams looked after the scoring for the winners, with assists being earned by Winterstein, Summerhill and Turner.

Angie's will be looking to avenge their loss to Scarborough when the two teams square off at the Rec Centre this evening.
