Dirty, spotty windows can make the most attractive home or impressive office building look forlorn and neglected. Anyone, though, can have sparkling clean windows by using WOOLY WASHER, a squeegee and an extension pole made by MALLORY INDUSTRIES INC. Professional window cleaners are proving every day, in buildings small and large, all over the world, that this is the most effective, the fastest and the easiest way to clean glass. In fact, it is the only method. So forget about endless rolls of paper towels and streaky windows, strip all the dirt away with WOOLY WASHER. Available at all Woolco, Canadian Tire Co. and better Home Hardware stores.

EFFECTIVE AND RESPONSIBLE TO THE ENVIRONMENT

For many generations, conscientious homemakers have used S.O.S. soap pads. Our grandmother's fully appreciated these good, old-fashioned and reliable soap pads which can be used for a great number of cleaning jobs around the house. For example, cleaning the oven, removing hard water stains and mildew, or old dirty paste wax off hardwood floors.

In fact, S.O.S. soap pads can do most cleaning jobs efficiently. They also work VERY effectively on tough-to-clean surfaces and for eliminating rust on metal surfaces.

S.O.S. takes pride in being responsible to the environment. The manufacturer of S.O.S. soap pads has always taken the environment seriously: when S.O.S. pads were developed over 70 years ago, they were made of basic soap and steel wool. Today, S.O.S. pads are still made with these few basic ingredients so that they place the smallest possible burden on our environment.

Basic components of S.O.S. soap pads are: (1) Steel wool which degrades to iron oxide — a naturally occurring element in the Earth's crust. (2) Biodegradable soaps and detergents that contain no phosphorus or phosphates. (3) A minimal amount of fragrances, dye, rust inhibitors and processing aids. Packaging materials are made of recycled and recyclable board.

For a clean home and a cleaner environment, use S.O.S. SOAP PADS ALL THE TIME. CHECK THE S.O.S. 101 USES BOOKLET FOR THE MANY WAYS TO USE THIS FINE PRODUCT.

Railway repairs ready by June

The CN railway track repairs at Main Street will be complete by the middle of June and the costs will be paid by the transportation ministry, council heard Tuesday night.

The grant will cover 90 per cent of the $50,000 project, which includes removal of the existing crossing and adding a new surface material.

The town will pay the remaining 10 per cent or $5,000 of the repairs including materials and asphalt costs, Whitehouse said.

Ward 6 Councillor Jim Sanders warned motorists the four-day job, to be spread over two separate weekends beginning Sunday, May 26, will be a headache.

"The community will really be disrupted but I hope the people understand it will result in a quieter, smoother ride," Sanders said.

The road will be closed for the repairs Sunday, May 26 and Monday, May 27 and again Sunday, June 9 and Monday, June 10 from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. each day.

The detour routes for local motorists will be re-directed to Millard/Stouffer Streets from the 9th Concession to Main Street, and on Bethesda Sideroad from the 9th Concession to Hwy. 47 for highway and sales barn traffic, council decided.
