

Minor Novices develop talents on Select roster

For the fledgling Stouffville Birkett and Hassard Insurance Minor Novice Selects, a lack of victories on the ice hasn't dampened the enthusiasm of either players or coaches.

The Selects, which were picked this past December from the rosters of the town's Novice house league, have developed both sportsmanship and talent, according to the coaching staff.

Wins have been scarce for the Selects, who have played most of their games against bona fide Rep teams.

But they did make it as far as the semifinals in a recent tournament in Markham.

Michael Taylor, Casey Maude, David Brown, John Hermanson, and Robbie Howe, picked up the Selects MVP awards during that competition.

Coaches Mike Jones, Tom Brown, and Wayne Jackson feel the team has given the opportunity for talented house leaguers to get a taste of high level hockey.

"The coaching staff is very pleased to see the progress this team has made in such a short time, and we feel they will be much better prepared for their future in the Rep hockey system", said Jones.

"Hopefully, this concept will continue on, as Stouffville has a lot of budding young hockey players, who deserve a chance at some good competition and a lot of fun."

Michael Taylor has led the squad so far with 12 points. Ryan Jones has seven, with Casey Maude and Grant Turner adding six a piece, and Brent Myers five.

The members of the Stouffville Minor Novice Select team had a good season this year, even though they didn't earn a lot of victories. The players were chosen from the Whitchurch-Stouffville Minor Hockey Association's Minor Novice house league. Team members are front row (left-to-right) - Dillon Harrison, John Rogal-

McMann nets hat trick as Pee Wees beat Ajax

The Markham-Stouffville Credit Union Pee Wee Clippers, eliminated from Ontario Minor Hockey Association (OMHA) competition, snuck past Ajax 4-3 in an exhibition contest last week.

Roger McMann carried the hot stick for the Clippers, firing three goals and assisting on the fourth, which was scored by John McKinnon.

McKinnon, David Hutchison, Mike Underwood, and Tim Smart also earned assists for the Clippers, who take on the Stouffville Bantam B's this Thursday night at the Recreation Centre.
