Stouffville Missionary

Part two of Molder of Dreams is Sunday at 6:30 p.m. Growing up, Guy Doud was a loser, and everyone knew it.

Any hopes and dreams he had in life would have to be kept to himself because that's all they would every be... dreams.

Them something happened. But what? How did this social outcast become

National Teacher of the Year and find himself standing in the Oval Office, being honored by the President of the United States?

This true story is the heart of a powerful, two-part film, Molder of Dreams, produced by Focus on the Family Films.

The setting is a high school classroom, where two stories unfold: one is Guy Doud's moving and humorous account of his own childhood and how it impacted the way he teaches; the other is the true account of one of Guy's students, Ken Soderman.

What transpires leads to the dramatic conclusion of Molder of Dreams. Everyone is welcome.

Stouffville Missionary is located at 6500 Main St., Stouffville.
