Civic recognition service at St. James

All churches in the Stouffville Uxbridge area are invited to submit information to be included in Church Focus. Phone: Connie Apps 294-9929. Deadline for Saturday column is Tuesday at noon.

St. James Presbyterian

A Civic Recognition service is planned for Sunday at 11 a.m. Forty guests including MP Bill Attewell, school principals and the town council have been invited. Each year a special guest of honor is chosen. This year's guest is Robin Magee, director of Whitchurch-Stouffville Food Bank.

Rev. Herb Gale preaches the sermon on what true leadership means as taken from the last chapter of the Gospel of John.

Special music includes Bill Moyer, from the Stouffville Planning Dept., as soloist and the St. James Men's Quartet. A reception follows the service.

The 21st annual Sacred Music Night is Friday, May 3 at 8 p.m. Three quartets are participating including The Harvillites, from Scarborough, the Four Dads, from Uxbridge and the St. James' Male Quartet.

Also participating in the concert, as they have since it began in 1971, is the St. James children's choir. Singer-song writer Bob Davies also is participating.

The offering is going to Sonshine Square, an organization that conducts Bible teaching in all the elementary schools of Whitchurch-Stouffville. A program Shirley Ohlman heads. St. James Presbyterian is located on Main St. east Stouffville.
