

Neighbor observed suspect snipping fence

A Whitchurch-Stouffville man faces a variety of charges after police pulled over a car driven by a man suspected of an attempted break-in at a house on Vandorf Side Rd.

Police reports said a Stouffville man was called by a neighbor who observed a car parked in his driveway and a man holding a flashlight snipping through a fence shortly before 11 p.m. Wednesday.

Crime Watch

The victim blocked the driveway with a tow truck, but the intruder managed to drive around the blockade.

Police, knowing the licence plate number, observed the suspected vehicle travelling south on Hwy. 48 and pulled over the car.

A 24-year-old Stouffville man is set to appear in Newmarket Provincial Court June 13 on the following charges: impaired operation of a motor vehicle, having a blood alcohol content over 80 mg., trespassing, prowling at night and driving while suspended and mischief under $1,000.

Barking dog

A barking dog alerted a man to a burglary at Impact Auto Auction in Stouffville shortly before 2 a.m. May 14.

Police said a man pursued a trespasser on the property, but lost the suspect. Police were called and nabbed a suspect on Hwy. 48.

A Newmarket man, 26, was charged with theft under and mischief under.

Window smashed

Police responded to a handgun call in Stouffville, but on arrival at the scene found a smashed car window.

Police reports said the window was smashed during a domestic dispute on Concession 5.

A 27-year-old Weston man was charged with damage to property.
