

Recital '91 coming soon

KATE GILDERDALE
Correspondent

The world's most famous nanny will come to life in the DanceCentre's eighth annual recital, which takes place at Stouffville District Secondary School on May 30 and 31.

The second half of the program will feature a one-hour performance of Mary Poppins, choreographed and directed by DanceCentre director Michele Green and performed by 60 of the studio's senior students.

The roles of the children, Michael and Jane, will each be shared by two dancers.

Blair Puente and Joel Green will perform the part of Michael, while Katherine Scorrar and Sandra Baker will take on the role of Jane. Bert will be danced by Amy Sled. Younger students will be featured in the first half of the program, in a section entitled Waterbabies.

The section will include Octopus's Garden, Three Little Fishes and Under the Sea. Also featured in this year's recital will be the first public performance by the newly formed Youth Company, a 15-member group of students aged 12 to 16.

These students have attained an artistic and technical maturity which can be seen in their interpretation of the number Watercolors - a tribute to theatre. The Youth Company will also perform at the Strawberry Festival on the evening of Thursday, June 27, at the high school. More than 200 dancers will take part in Recital '91, which begins at 7:30 p.m. on May 30 and 31. Tickets, which are $5 each, are available from students or by calling the DanceCentre at 640-6082. Doors open at 7:00 p.m.
