Home of the week

This Uxbridge Township brick and aluminum sidesplit is The Tribune/Economist and Sun's Home of the Week. The home is listed with Larkin Realty Ltd. at $364,900. Located on a three-acre parcel of land, the home has a huge number of features. There are three-plus bedrooms, along with a four-piece and a three-piece bathroom. The family room is light and airy with new carpet and indirect lighting. There's a modern kitchen and the dining room features a walkout to a deck. There's a big bay window in the living room which offers a panoramic view. Other features include a large double garage with door opener, a one-bedroom in-law apartment with separate entrance, air conditioning, security system, built-in dishwasher, and water softener. As an added convenience there is a GO bus stop in front of the property. For more information, please contact sales representative Betty Bangay at 640-2715 or 640-2400.
