

Isaac Baker was known to many for harness, saddle work

Sympathy is expressed to the family of Isaac Baker who passed away Saturday, May 25 at Parkview Home for the Aged in his 94th year. He is survived by his son Alvin, daughters Mary, Drudge, Ruth, Reesor and Eva Diller, 17 grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren, one brother, Amos and one sister Bertie.

The funeral was held at Heise Hill Church on Tuesday.

Mr. Baker was a harness maker who took great pride and skill in his workmanship. His reputation for excellence led to orders for his work from horse owners throughout North America. He also made saddles, harnesses, and even boots and gun holsters for the Metro Police department. Mr. Baker did work for a number of gentlemen farmers in the Maple area and when they went to the Royal Winter Fair, talked about his excellent work.

This resulted in all the work he could handle.

More than 270 people attended the Open House on Sunday afternoon in honor of the 25th wedding anniversary of Albert and Jean Yake at Parkview Village apartments. The entire original wedding party was present for the happy occasion. A family supper was later held at the home of their son-in-law and daughter Darrin and Theresa Shaw.

George Barrett of Gravenhurst spent Saturday night with Mel and Effie Baker.

Ed and Wanda Baker entertained great-grandparents, Frank and Grace Bennett, grandmother, Bonnie June Bennett, grandparents Mel and Effie

Baker and Darrin and Theresa Shaw in honor of their sons, Nicholas, 4 and Nathaniel, 3.

Larry and Darlene Briceson enjoyed the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernie of North Bay.

Jonathon and Joshua Soukup have recently had the chicken pox.

Ruth Warder fell and broke her wrist and is now wearing a cast.

Russell and Rowena Heise are visiting their sons and their families in Niagara Peninsula for several days.
