Record crowd at Lions beef barbecue

Where's the beef?
 Last week for a short time at least, it was at the Lions annual Beef Barbecue.

Held Thursday night, the Lions Club affair drew a near record crowd of 1,200 people.

The grills were sizzling from 5 to 8:30 p.m.

The Lions baked 250 potatoes at a time in reconverted refrigerators, and served up slabs of barbecued beef to the long line on Thursday, a change from previous years, when the event was held on the Wednesday before the Strawberry Festival.
