

FESTIVAL FUN

Strawberry Festival provides warm weekend of activities and smiles

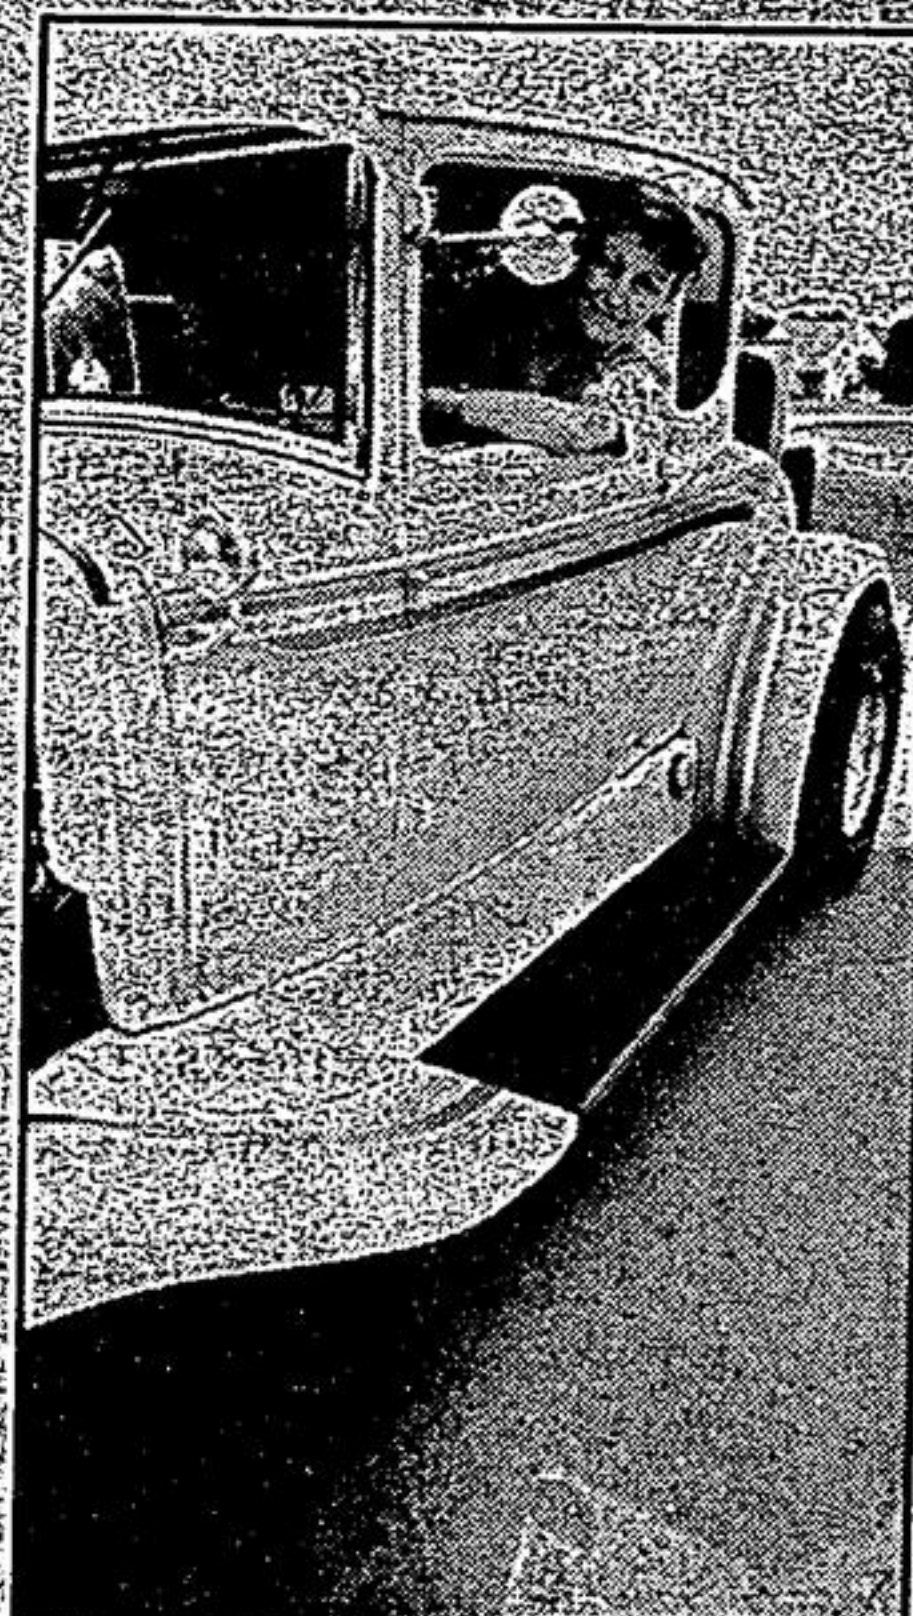

Photos by Celia Bronkhorst, Steve Somerville

Margo Nagy and Deena Helson prepare another batch of strawberries and cream for the crowds at the Town Park on Saturday.

Jenna Payne was all smiles at the Miss Whitchurch-Stouffville pageant Thursday.

Above, Beth Ames and her 1930 Model A Ford took part in the antique car display. At left, Stephanie Bigioni and her sister Nicole await the festivities at the community track opening. Below, Heather McKinnon (far left) was named Miss Congeniality at the Miss Whitchurch-Stouffville pageant, while at bottom, Melanie Kendall performs during the event.

Above, (from left) Peter, Lindsay and Daniel Weidlich sample the strawberries and cream at the McNeill Pharmaceutical Strawberry Social at the park. Below, the Banjo Rascals, Bob Armstrong, Darrell Dufour and Mel Collie played to the Strawberry Festival crowds. At right, Alma Bowman is given a festival sticker by Livingston the clown.

