Home of the week

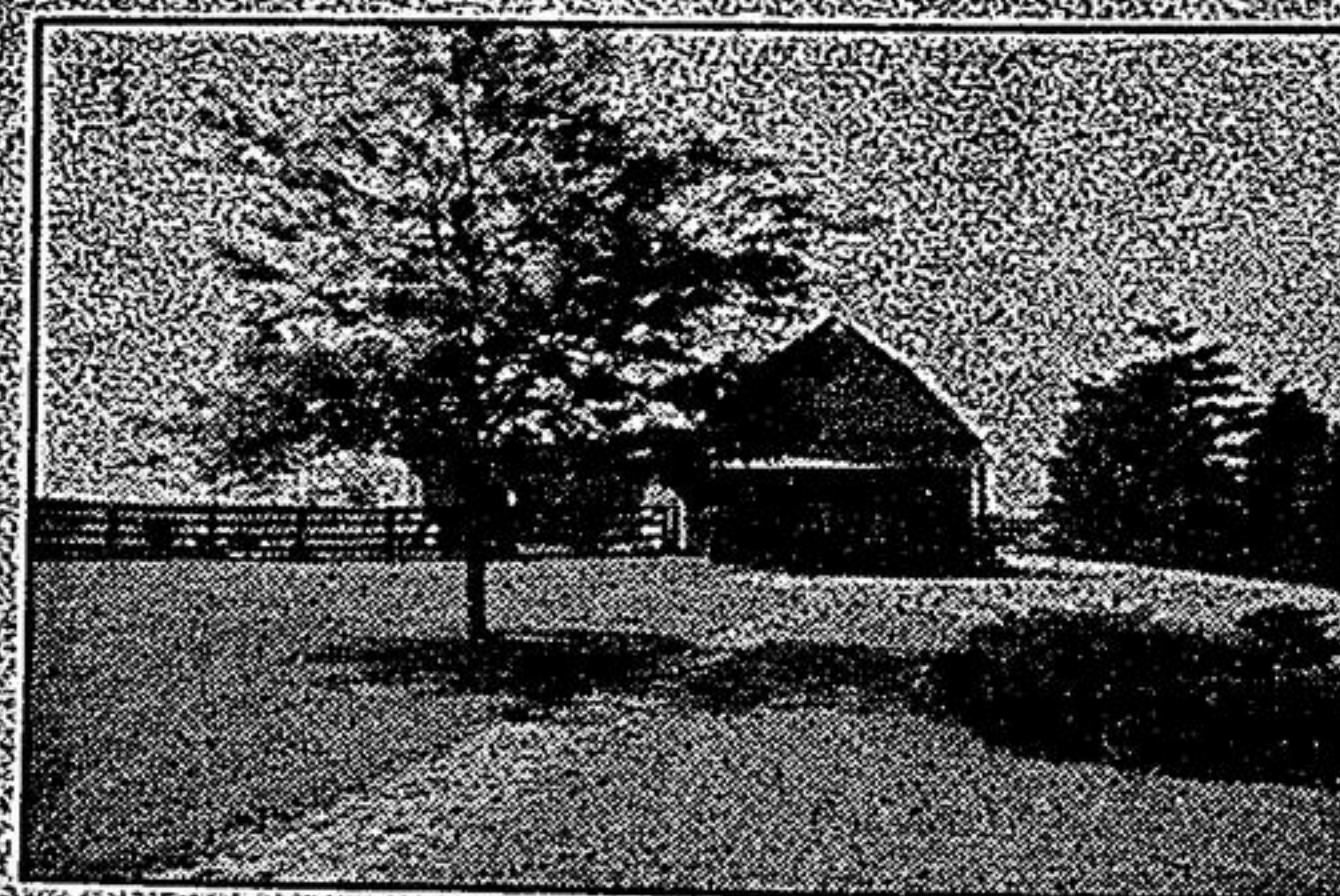

The Tribune/Economist and Sun's Home of the Week is a custom-built showpiece on 10 high rolling acres in the Mt. Albert area. The home is located at 5081 Holborn Rd. The house has been constructed of 100-year-old brick reclaimed from a downtown Toronto church. Inside, quality and beauty abound. The dream kitchen is manufactured by Hudson with sparkling white lacquer cupboards, ceramic floor and spot lights galore. All four bathrooms have been lavishly redone including one with an oversized whirlpool bath and all have ceramic floors. The fireplace in the main floor family room is constructed from cobblestones reclaimed from TTC tracks and is flanked by built-in bookshelf cupboards. For the horse enthusiast, there is a 10 stall serviced hip roof barn with tack room and loft. It even has a front porch. For more information please contact Sadie Moranis Ltd.
