Christian Blind Mission
The final outdoor summer concert features the music of the Semeadors, a 15-voice choir from Brazil.

Also participating are Jim and Marie Alexander and the Spirit Brass.

The concert is today at 7 p.m. Those attending are asked to bring their own lawn chairs.

The Christian Blind Mission is located at 3844 Stouffville Rd. just east of Hwy 404.

Melville United
The worship service Sunday is at 9 a.m. with Rev. Wayne Reed preaching.

Mark Sept. 13 on your calendar as a reminder to attend the Melville United chicken barbecue.

This delicious event takes place from 4:30 to 8 p.m. with adults $10, children $5 and preschoolers free.

Melville United is located on Kennedy Rd. north of 18th Ave.

Churchill Church, Baptist
The regular summer worship services include worship at 10 a.m. at the church and an open air evening service at 7 p.m. at Cedar Park.

The evening service features a great instrumental group. The picnic shelter is used in case of inclement weather.

Sunday, Sept. 1 service times revert back to 11 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

A food bank operates out of Churchill Church Tuesdays and Saturdays at 9:30 a.m. and Thursday evenings. The food bank has been in operation for one year.

Everyone is cordially welcome to all services at the church located on Main St., East, Stouffville.

Stouffville Missionary
The Seasons Of A Spiritual Life is a series of four messages describing the phases of a healthy spiritual pilgrimage.

This Sunday is Part IV, Adulthood by Pastor Gibson. Everyone is invited to join Stouffville Missionary on the pilgrimage. Summer Sunday morning ser-VICES are at 10:30 a.m.

While the Stayner Family Camp is on, the schedule includes joint services with Markham and Gormley Missionary Churches to be held on Sunday at the Christian Blind Mission International, 3844 Stouffville Rd.

Pastor Glen Gibson continues a three part evening seminar dealing with essential skills useful in experiencing personal spiritual renewal on Sunday from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. entitled Study. Sept. 1 concludes the seminars and is entitled Small Group.

Stouffville Missionary is located at 6500 Main St., Stouffville.

St. James, Presbyterian
Whitchurch-Stouffville has been proclaimed Music Town, Ontario.

In honor of this status, a musical barbecue and corn roast is planned for Saturday, Sept. 21 from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the Stouffville Park. Music will be continuous throughout the afternoon and evening along with good food and fellowship.

Tickets are adults, $8, senior citizens $5 and children under 12.

Tickets go on sale Aug. 19. The event is sponsored by the congregation of St. James Presbyterian with musical involvement by the entire town.

From the proceeds, a music scholarship will be established. In addition, two persons who have contributed to the musical prominence of the municipality, will be honored.

The Sunday worship service at St. James is at 10 a.m. through to Sunday, Sept. 1.

The school runs from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. for children Kindergarten to Grade 8.

Cost for one child is $30, second child $25 and third child $20. To register call the church at 640-3151.

St. James Presbyterian is located on Main St., Stouffville.

Stouffville United church workshops at St. James on Labour Day, Sept. 1.

St. James Presbyterian is located at on Main St., Stouffville.

Christ Church
Summer Sunday worship is at 10 a.m. Regular Sunday school continues on an informal basis and the nursery will operate every Sunday through the summer.

The justly famous Christ Church barbecue continues in the church outback at 6:30 p.m. For the weekly barbecue all they ask is that each family provide either one salad or one dessert.

They provide the rest. The food and fellowship is followed by an informal service at 7:30 p.m.

The lay readers would be most appreciative of any help you can give with the set up and clean up before and after the barbecue part of the evening.

Claremont United
Summer services for the summer months are shared with Claremont Baptist.

During August Rev. Glen Eagle preaches in the Claremont Baptist church. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this service at 11 a.m.

Stouffville Baptist
