SDSS earns pair of regional championships

Two Stouffville District Secondary School (SDSS) teams won regional titles last Thursday.

Jason Reesor and Andrea Crothers combined to give the school its first junior mixed doubles tennis championship since 1972, while the defending Durham-York (DYSSA) titlist SDSS girls' golf team repeated as York champions at the Maples of Ballantrae Golf Club.

Amy Beecham, Angie Byer, Julie Coleman and Leslie Penny now go on to defend their DYSSA crown at the Lakeridge Golf Course this week.

Reesor and Crothers bested the King City Secondary School duo 6-1, 6-1 in the final at Newmarket High School to claim their title.

There is no DYSSA competition at the junior level.

In other athletic action at SDSS, the field hockey girls played Markville to a goalless draw Thursday. The Spartans carried the play for most of the game, but couldn't connect.

Naomi Weir, Amy Ormson and Tara Peever led the SDSS offensive attack. The Spartans had lost to the Markville team earlier in the week.

In volleyball, it was the senior Spartans boys team downing Sutton High School 11-3, 15-11 Thursday. The seniors also swept Sacred Heart.

The junior Spartan volleyballers beat Sutton in two straight games as Kevin Cargill and Pete Slade used power shots to finish off the Sutton outfit.

The SDSS cross country team is to participate in the TSSAA Invitational Meet at High Park in Toronto this Saturday.

The unit will contest the Cardinal Carter Catholic School Invitational at Boyd Conservation Area near Woodbridge Oct. 9, before taking part in the York championships Oct. 17 at Boyd.

The DYSSA cross country championships are scheduled for Oct. 24 at Boyd.

Woodley notches two goals for Blues

The beat goes on for the Gallo Real Estate Red Wings and the Greens Restaurant North Stars in Stouffville Amateur Hockey League play.

The two squads each ran their season opening win streaks to four at the Rec Centre last Sunday, with the Wings blanking the Betz Pools Nordiques 1-0 in 40 and over action, while the Stars trimmed the Stomark Rental Kings 3-1 in 30 and over play.

Terry Weatherill notched the lone Wings marker.

It was Bruce Wilcock, Darcy Milligan, and Walter McDonald scoring for the Stars, with Jamie Dunbar netting the Kings goal.

Elsewhere, Bruce Woodley bulged the twine twice to lead the Occasions Catering Blues to a 4-2 win over the Rand Pools Maple Leafs.

Mike "Gunner" Morrison and Frank Loewen also scored for the winners, while Murray Thompson and Bob Leger replied for the Leafs.

Glen Gibson had a pair of goals in the Boyd's Sports Sharks 6-1 victory over the Village Landscaping Capitals.

Dave Dodds, Kim Kavluk, Jim Grove, and Andy Patterson rounded out the Sharks offence, while it was Roger Hubbard with the Caps only goal.

Charles Ramsey, Doug Wright, and Doug Todd scored in the G&R Flooring Jets 3-0 whitewash of the A&S Construction Flames.

It was Al McNaught, Gary Yoshida, Don Lloyd, Ron Cain and Bill Ormson connecting as the Smurthwaite Heating Bruins downed the Stouffville Travel Whalers 5-1.

Wayne McMann clicked for the Whalers.

The Canadian Tire Black Hawks doubled up the Villeneuve Heating Flyers 4-2. Don Harman scored for the Hawks, and George Collins found the range for the Flyers.

Stouffville Classics capture division at police tournament

The Stouffville Classics started slow but finished strong to capture the D Division at the York Regional Police Oldtimers Hockey Tournament in Aurora last weekend.

The Classics, who lost their first two games of the competition, won their next pair, including a 6-0 whitewash job on the Scarborough Old Puckers in Sunday's divisional championship contest.

Classics goalie Larry Penny had two shutouts in the tournament, earning him an MVP award.

Doug Gornall netted a pair in the Classics' little triumph, with singles coming off the sticks of Pete Turner, Darcy Milligan, Kim Kavluk and Tedd Pickering.

Turner was also awarded an MVP nomination for the Stouffville squad.

The Classics open up their 1991-92 Ajax Old-timer League season Oct. 9 and host their own tournament at the Rec Centre Oct. 18 to 20.

Burkholder paces Bantams Clippers to pair of wins

Ryan Burkholder scored five goals and had two assists to lead the Edwards Murphy Bantam Clippers to a pair of exhibition wins last Sunday.

Burkholder netted a hat trick and David Hutchison scored twice, as the Clippers topped Uxbridge 7-4 in an impressive display of playmaking by the Stouffville crew.

Geoff Smith and David Giancoulos also scored for the Clippers, with assists going to Ryan Jefferson, Jason Reesor, Giancoulos, John McKinnon, each with a pair, while Smith, Jason Davis, Roger McManu, Wilcox, and Coughlan collected singles.

The Clippers then topped Markham 6-2 in their second outing of the day, with Burkholder contributing two goals and two assists.

Reesor was good for a goal and a pair of set ups, while McKinnon and Smith each had a goal and an assist. Coughlan also scored, while Giancoulos had two assists.

The Bantams open the season in Bowmanville today, with their home opener set for next Sunday evening at 9 p.m. at the Rec Centre.

King, Spytz power Pee Wee Clippers to second victory

The Markham-Stouffville Credit Union Pee Wees skated to their second straight pre-season victory last Friday night, as they downed Richmond Hill 4-2 at the Rec Centre.

Ryan King scored from Dan Tardella and Rob Spytz on the game's opening shift to give the Clippers the early lead.

Spytz connected midway through the first period, from Tim Smart, to give Stouffville a 2-0 advantage.

Richmond Hill tied it up in the third stanza.

However, goals by Kyle Osborne, from Smart and Lucas Anderson, and Scott Assinck, on an end to end rush, gave the Clippers the win.

Jason Brown and Evan Boyd were impressive in the Clippers net.

The Clippers were scheduled to play Bowmanville in their league opener at the Rec Centre last night.

They then take on Uxbridge in a home and home exhibition set Sunday.
