

McGuckin notches hat trick in SIHL hockey action

Kevin McGuckin's three goals and two assists enabled his Boyd's Sports team to post an 8-6 win over Williamson Kings in Stouffville Intermediate Hockey League action Tuesday night (Sept. 24) at the Rec Centre.

Todd Petkovich had a pair of markers for Boyd's with Brian Begg, Shawn Leonard, and Bill Anderson adding singles. For the Kings, it was Keith McGuckin and Pete Sinclair with two goals each. Tim Yeomans had a solo.

Scott Harper, Terry Porter, Doug Feasby and Jeff King scored to lift the Cosartium Rangers past the Dave Blow Canadians 4-1 in the other contest. Mike Feasby clicked for the Canadians.

In action from Tuesday, Sept. 31, Olaf Rabe fired a hat trick and added an assist to lift the Williamson Kings over the Dave Blow Canadiens 7-3.

Paul Barry, Keith McGuckin and Bob Hughes also scored for the Kings. McGuckin had four assists. Canadiens goals went to Mike Sear, with two and Tim Lofgren.

The other game saw the Rangers tie Boyd's Sports 5-5. Boyd's goals went to Paul Sinclair, Ted Waite, Todd Petkovich, Chris Brown and Bill Anderson. Kevin McGuckin had two assists.

Scott Sutherland, with a pair, led the Rangers scoring, while Norm Wide-man had a single. Doug Feasby earned two assists.

Spurs battle for final playoff spot in game today

It's down to the wire for the Stouffville Town Spurs as they fight to hold on to the fourth and final playoff spot in the Newmarket and District Soccer League standings.

The short-staffed Spurs fell 1-0 to the Aurora Rangers in Aurora Saturday, but managed to remain one point ahead of fifth place Bradford United, which also lost.

The Spurs, who were forced to go with only nine players, threatened repeatedly in the opening half, but couldn't convert their scoring chances. The Rangers finally notched the game's only score on a penalty kick that Spurs goalie Ross Devenport came within inches of reaching.

"We could have scored three or four goals in the first half," said Spurs coach Alfons Rubbens. "But our guys got tired in the second half and they were getting frustrated."

The Spurs play their final game of the regular season against first place Orillia today at three o'clock at the Rec Centre field.

Meanwhile, Bradford United closes out its schedule with a game versus the third place Bradford Football Club the same day. The Spurs could finish as high as third if they win and the two Bradford squads tie.

Win or lose, Rubbens said it had been a banner season for his club. "We had 10 points last year and finished last. This season, we've got 23 points and we're fighting for third place."
