

USS hoop squads rack up three wins

The victories are starting to come fast and furious for the Uxbridge Secondary School (USS) girls basketball teams.

The school's Junior Tigers hoopsters added a pair of wins to their total last week, dumping Father Pereyma Separate School 27-13 Tuesday, before running roughshod over Courtyce HS 42-9 Thursday.

Meanwhile, the Midget bengals were edging their Pereyma opponents 21-18 Monday.

The Juniors were led by their sharp shooter Tricia Ryzebol in both their triumphs. Ryzebol had a 14-point game against Pereyma, then went to the hoop for a total of 13 points in the Courtyce match.

Kristina Farr was good for 10 points against Courtyce, with Carrie Reinhardt, Alicia Willis and Melissa Dilkes also getting nine, eight and six points respectively.

Sarena Schneider, Tara Teskey, and Stephanie Smith all picked off crucial defensive rebounds for the Midgets in the decisive fourth quarter of their encounter with Pereyma.

Schneider, Susan Knight and Teskey provided the bulk of the Tigers' scoring as the entire team displayed effective passing skills throughout the game.

Schneider's lay-up clinched the contest for USS in the final quarter.

Golden Agers, Pee Wees link up for tourney

The Uxbridge Pee Wee Youth Bowlers were given a lesson by their senior counterparts Sunday at Uxbridge Bowl.

In the first ever tournament involving the Pee Wees and the members of the Uxbridge Golden Age Bowling League, 48 bowlers broke up into teams consisting of a male and female Pee Wee and a senior.

The trio of Pee Wees Charis Davies and Nikki Hipkiss, and senior Duncan McKenzie, took top honors in the competition, with Grant Goodine and Amanda Laureysens (Pee Wees) and senior Dorothy Pollard placing second. McKenzie was 97 over average to lead all Golden Agers. Kim Sayer and Ian McGillvery were top Pee Wees, bowling 84 and 77 points over average respectively.

In regular Golden Age League action this week, it was Stan Lunney racking up a 753 triple, with a booming 330 single leading the way.

Morley Bagshaw was second on the day, with a 606 three-game total, featuring a 230 high score. Other bowlers reaching the 200 mark were Pat Kinsella 247, Homer Walker 240, Nan Arnold 207, Jim George 205, Joe Forbes 225, Mary Lunney 216, Ches McCaslin 203 and Dorothy Pollard Oldham 215, Doris Smith 290, Ina 202.

Rangers tie up Canadians

They were all tied up in knots in Stouffville Intermediate Hockey action at the Rec Centre last Tuesday night, as both games ended up deadlocked.

Doug Feasby notched a pair of markers, and Scott Sutherland added a single, as the Consortium Rangers played to a 3-3 draw with the Dave Blow Canadians.

Mike Glenn, Mike Feasby and Steve Livingston scored for the Canadians.

Sutherland and Bill Root each collected two assists for the Rangers with Sutherland setting up a pair of Canadian tallies.

In the other game, eight players shared the scoring as Boyd's Sports played to a 4-4 stand-off with the Williamson Kings.

Kevin McGuckin, Brian Begg, Marty Williamson and Naz Nicastro clicked for Boyd's.

Keven Bartley, Keith McGuckin, Paul Barry and Bob Hughes responded for the Kings.
