

Holiday Happenings

Fun at the library

The Newmarket Public Library offers some exciting Christmas programs for kids during the holidays.

Saturday, Dec. 21 is the Christmas Film Festival with two Christmas movies - Babar and Father Christmas and Snowman. No registration is required. The program runs from 2 to 2:55 p.m. for ages three and up.

Tuesday, Dec. 24 is Christmas Eve Storytime for kids ages three to seven, from 10 to 10:45 a.m. Drop in for stories, songs and a movie.

Friday, Dec. 27, there's a cartooning workshop for children ages eight to 12 years. Draw some of your favorite superheroes. Register in person, or by phone, starting Dec. 14. The fee is $2.

Saturday, Dec. 28 lets you celebrate winter at the Let It Snow Party. Stories, songs, games, a craft and a treat let you welcome winter. Register by phone or in person, starting Dec. 14. The program runs craft and, of course, fairytales all inspired by Jacob and his brother, Wilhelm. Register by phone or in person starting Dec. 14. The program for children ages three to six has a $1 fee.

For information on any of these programs, call the children's department of the Newmarket Public Library at 895-9056.

Raffle prize is Santa's dream

For Santas who can't fill all the wish lists, the Canadian Mental Health Association has a gamble that could solve the dilemma.

The association's Giant Toy Raffle will take place Dec. 20 and two lucky winners will each receive new toys valued at more than $500. The bags of goodies are suitable for the youngest boys and girls to the teenager.

Tickets, which cost $1 each, will be available at the association's office at 1111 Stellar Dr., Unit 4B, in Newmarket.

Other sales agents in Newmarket are the Leslie Street Day Care, 1111 Stellar Dr., and Yonge Drivers of Canada, 207 Main St. S.

Aurora residents can gamble for the prizes by buying tickets at Bigg's Gallery, the Aurora Seniors Centre, the Aurora Fire Department's Edward Street station and at the town hall.

from 10 to 11:15 a.m. for children ages three to seven.

The library's New Year's Party is Dec. 31 at 10 a.m. for children ages four to seven. Ring in 1992 with stories, songs, games, a craft and a treat. Registration begins Dec. 14 for this program, which has a $2 fee.

Rusty the Clown makes a library appearance Jan. 2 at 10 a.m. for children ages four to 10. Start the new year off right at the library with this clown's antics. Tickets are available beginning Dec. 14 for this free program.

Cupcake Craft is a tasty way to have fun. Make a cupcake into a mouse that looks too good to eat Jan. 3 at 10 a.m. Children ages five to eight may register for the program, which has a $2 fee, starting Dec. 14.

Happy Birthday to Jacob Grimm of the Brothers Grimm, Jan. 4. Celebrate the fairytale expert's birthday with songs, a
