Lions Club helps make season bright

Stouffville Lions Club is hoping to make it a festive Christmas season for needy families in the area. Donations of toys, gifts or non-perishable food items for the club's annual Christmas donation project can be dropped off for distribution at: Birkett/Hasard Insurance Brokers Ltd., 6262 Main St., Family Trust Real Estate, Stouffville Place Mall, 5710 Main St., Markham-Stouffville Community Credit Union, 6245 Main Street and the Bank of Nova Scotia, 6323 Main St. For more information call Tim Rochacewicz, chairman of the club's health and social services committee at 640-4588 or 343-5971.

Help foodbank

The new Whitchurch-Stouffville Foodbank, located at Aurora Sideroad and Ninth Line, needs volunteers for two-hour shifts during Tuesday mornings, Saturday mornings or Thursday evenings. Call the Volunteer Bureau Markham at 471-1620.
