

Legion sno-pitch today

Eighteen teams have begun the chase for roughly $1,300 in prize money as the Stouffville Legion's fourth annual sno-pitch tournament takes over the town park this weekend.

The event was scheduled to get underway at 8 a.m. this morning, with the preliminary round continuing until 6 p.m. today.

The playoffs will take place tomorrow from mid-morning until mid-afternoon.

The Legion Hall will be the site of a free dance tonight for those taking part in the tourney. There will be entertainment and refreshments all day long today at Latcham Hall, with the fun shifting to the Legion tomorrow.

Proceeds from the competition are to be donated to Easter Seals at the Barrie Telethon March 1.

Midget Clippers lose two, tie one in playoffs

The Bouwmeister Landscaping Midget Clippers needed a few more Jasons in their round robin playoff games last week, as they could manage only a tie in three games played.

Jason Whitebread was good for four goals on the week, while Bantam Clipper recruit Jason Reesor netted a pair of scores in his appearance Sunday.

The Clippers started off with a 5-5 deadlock with Ajax Tuesday, but were then defeated 7-5 by Pickering Saturday, before falling 8-4 to Ajax Sunday. Whitebread and Dan McNaught each scored a pair of goals for the Bouwmeister bunch in Tuesday's tie, with Jody Infurnari adding the fifth marker.

Against Pickering Saturday, it was Whitebread netting another pair, to go with singles by Dan Bouchard, Joe Nucci and Shane Wilcox.

Reesor was the bright spot for the Clippers in Sunday's loss, as the fill in defenceman lit the lamp twice.

Trevor Bardell and McNaught also connected for the Clippers.

Novices win, lose in tight games

The Howard S. Lee Real Estate Minor Novice Clippers ended up on both ends of tight scores in a pair of exhibition games this week.

The Clippers snuck past Uxbridge 2-1 in a game played at the Stouffville Rec Centre, but couldn't hold a two-goal lead as they fell 5-4 to Malvern in a see-saw contest on the road.

In the Uxbridge game, the Clippers took a 1-0 lead into the second period on a goal by Dylan Harrison from Jeremy Guest.

Chris Peters, from Tom Barton, squared it for Uxbridge early in the second, with Harrison netting the winner for Stouffville later in the period, from Adam Christensen and Brandon Tardella.

The Stouffville squad struck early against Malvern, taking a 2-0 lead in the opening period. After the home team knotted the game, the Clippers went in front again, only to have Malvern go ahead with a pair of goals.

The Clippers managed the equalizer, only to surrender the winning goal late in the final period.

Jason McDonald scored twice for Stouffville, with singles going to Christensen and Kevin Cinnamon. Assists were earned by Fraser Smith (2), Jacqui Vankoughnet, McDonald and Guest.
