

Music Mania tickets on sale for 32nd show

Tickets are now on sale for the 32nd annual Music Mania production, Gone Loonie, which takes the stage at Stouffville District Secondary School April 23, 24 and 25.

Preparations for the show have included the building of new risers to accommodate to 70-person chorus, and the purchase of a new backdrop to replace the group's well-used 10-year-old one.

More than 200 people are involved in the production, from singers, actors and dancers right through to the technical crew, props people, ushers and other helpers. Dave Duggan is the show's director; Kathi Phillips, chorus director; Cathy McNaught, skit director; and Mary Nicc, dance director. A sneak preview will be put on April 21 for seniors who are shut in and confined to longterm residences and the handicapped. Last week's Tribune incorrectly reported that the April 21 show was open to all seniors.

Gone Loonie officially opens April 23. Senior citizens will receive a special rate for that show. Tickets - on sale at Card's Hardware - are $6 each for opening night, and $7 for the Friday and Saturday performances. Children under 12 are admitted for $3.50. All performances begin at 8 p.m. For more information please call Heather Andrews at 640-3185, or Dave Duggan at 640-7872.

Ambulance drivers ratify deal

Stouffville and Uxbridge ambulance officers and dispatchers have a new contract to maintain wage parity with officers in services directly run by the provincial government.

The Ontario Public Service Employees Union that represents the ambulance officers voted this week by a 77 per cent margin to endorse a two year deal that improves job security, health and safety provisions and severance and statutory holiday pay.

The agreement will bring wages from the 1991 maximum of $17.78 hourly to $17.96, retroactive to Jan. 1 and to $18.33 on Jan. 1, 1992. A cost-of-living clause will also match increases in inflation that are more than three per cent in 1993.
