Get your clubs ready for Wolf Run

Get your clubs ready for the scenic Wolf Run Golf Club opening May 1st.

The public golf course features 18-holes with a Par 72.

Golf pro Dave Clayton says the scenic course overlooks

Lake Scugog and is challenging for every calibre of golfer.

There's a variety of holes along the 6,800 yard course, many shoots out of the bushes, link-style holes, bunkers and high rough to make the game interesting for players.

The course has four sets of tees: White tees (6,300 yards), Senior tees (5,800 yards), Senior tees (5,800 yards), and Ladies tees (5,400 yards).

With the tees we try to catch everybody," says Dave.

Wolf Run gives golfers the opportunity to use all the clubs in their bag.

Wolf Run is on the edge of Lake Scugog, on County Road

57, three miles west of Highway

35 (1/2 way between Lindsay and Port Perry).

Green fees are $20 weekdays and $28 weekends plus GST.

Wolf Run at (705) 328-3949.
