Reader outraged by mayor's visit

Dear Editor:
I would like to inform you and my fellow citizens that I have found out now how some of our tax money is wasted by our mayor.

I was astounded and outraged to learn that after publication of my last letter to The Tribune, (Wed. April 22 edition,) Fran Sainsbury had the audacity to appear at my place of employment.

There she complained bitterly to my employer about the letter.

She wasted approximately one hour of valuable taxpayers' time and it raises the following questions to me:

1) Although my home address is known to her, what on earth is she doing at my place of employment?

2) If somebody works at Cable Tech or A&P for example, and writes a private letter, is she going to those companies too?

As a logical thinking person, I cannot believe that this person - who runs our town - could act in such an unprofessional manner.

I would like to state once and for all: As a citizen of Stouffville I do have the right to voice my private opinion.

I have in no way used any business letterhead, nor have I mentioned the name of my employment, nor have I written on their behalf.

I also phoned the mayor's office April 22 at 1:30 p.m. but I had no response from that person as of Friday.

This irresponsible behavior of your's, Fran, is proof enough to anybody.

Easter Egg Hunt was a success

Dear Editor:
This is an open letter to the sponsors of the Easter Egg Hunt in Memorial Park held Easter Sunday.

You have made a little boy, Brett Burnell, so happy.

His parents, grandparents and great-grandparents are grateful to see Brett so happy.
