Auction time at Claremont's Toad Hall
