Three Stouffville District Secondary School (SDSS) athletes have qualified for this week's OFSAA regional track and field meet in Oshawa.

Kelly Forsyth was second in the senior girls javelin throw at the Durham York (DYSSA) championship meet in Etobicoke last Tuesday.

Andrea Crothers was third in the midget girls 200- and 400-metre events as well as the triple jump.

Phil De Roo finished fifth in the junior boys javelin throw.

For Crothers it is her first season competing in the triple jump. SDSS coach Scott Croucher is optimistic about her chances at the provincial level.

"She could go to the OFSAA finals in all three of her events," said Croucher. "She's just a natural athlete."

Forsyth has been hampered by a pulled muscle and won't be able to practice until just before the Oshawa meet, which goes Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

The OFSAA championship are scheduled for York University on June 5.

USS slo pitch girls win regional title

The Uxbridge Secondary School (USS) Tigers girls slo pitch team captured the Durham (LOSSA) regional title last Wednesday.

USS' Lorelee McLellan was named MVP of the LOSSA championship tournament while Julie O'Connor, Tracey Fockler, and Kim Pagliaro also contributed offensively for the Tigers.

Annieliese Lauterbach, Robyn MacKenzie and Melissa Dilkes stood out defensively for the USS crew.

The USS archery team of Gavin Titshall, Adam St. John, Jamie Sprules and Jason placed second at the OFSAA (All Ontario Compound Archery) finals last Wednesday.

Titshall finished first in the Limited Bows category.

The school is to hold its annual Athletic Banquet and Awards Night June 3.
