

Angies Pee Wees up record with win over Mississauga

The Stouffville Angie's Pee Wee girls hockey team improved its record to four wins and no defeats with a 5-1 victory over Mississauga Wednesday night at the Recreation Centre.

The Angie's outfit used pinpoint passing and shooting to take control of the game, as Kellie Cornell scored twice to lead the offence.

Deanne Hibbert, Sarah Abrahams, and Kristi Thompson also scored for Stouffville. Assists went to Morgan Dubkowski, Gina King, Kristi Thompson, and Deanne Hibbert. Meanwhile, the Action Signs Bantams were playing their Leaside opponents to a 1-1 tie the same night.

Jennifer Williams netted the lone Stouffville goal, with Kim Walsweer and Stephanie Summerhill picking up the assists. Both the Angie's and Action Signs teams will participate in a tournament at the Recreation Centre this Sunday (Nov. 15).

The Pee Wee competition will include Cobourg, Scarborough, and Mississauga. The Bantam event includes teams from Orangeville, Mis-

Mississauga, and Leaside. The Angie's squad takes to the ice at 8 a.m. for their first game and again at 2 p.m.

The Action Signs unit plays at 9 a.m. and 1 p.m.

The Pee Wee championship game is scheduled for 6:30 p.m., while the Bantam title match is for 7:30 p.m.

Novice girls make impressive debut

It was a first for the Markham-Stouffville Credit Union Novice girls hockey team, and a first for Stouffville.

The Novice squad, the first ever in the 18 year history of girls hockey in Stouffville, blanked Brampton 2-0 in their opening North metro Women's Hockey League game of the season Saturday.

Julia Summerhill was flawless in the Stouffville net, while Lindsay McCafferty and Karlee Dudley looked after the scoring.

Jacqui VanKoughnet had two assists for Stouffville. Jessica Bain set up a goal as well.

Also playing well for the Novices were Christina Davis, Andrea Meyer, Emily Patriarche, Jessica Clayson, and Lisa Jacque.

The Novices are coached and managed by Jack and Kathy VanKoughnet and Brian McCafferty.

Stouffville sisters earn swim honors

Caroline Goldie had a first place showing, while her younger sister Allison earned a fourth, at the first Regional Swim Meet of the season for both girls Nov. 1.

Caroline finished ahead of the pack in the Senior division, while Allison was swimming in the Junior flight.

Both girls swim with the Toronto Synchro Swim Club, which is based at the University of Toronto pool.
