

Stouffville Midget Clippers earn win, tie

The Stouffville Midget Clippers continued their ascent in a pair of recent games, defeating Port Perry 2-1 at the Rec Centre Nov. 6, then playing Uxbridge to a 3-3 draw two days later.

Port Perry found the mark first in the Port Perry contest, connecting on a first period power play.

Shane Wilcox set up Brad Crozier with two minutes remaining in the period as the Clippers pulled even.

In the middle stanza, both teams exchanged near misses before Crozier took a pass from Ryan Burkholder to score the game winner.

Port Perry applied pressure towards the end of the third period, sending out six attackers, while the Clippers managed to hold their ground playing two men short due to penalties.

It was the third straight win for the Clippers.

Stouffville took a 2-0 lead into the second period at Uxbridge, but the home team came back with three in a row to take the lead. The Clippers then squared things late in the game.

It was Brian Coughlan, Dan McNaught, and Burkholder scoring for the Clippers, with assists going to McNaught, Crozier, Bob Gray, and Chris Leonard.

The short-staffed Clippers pressed Bantam call ups Steve Wilcox, Roger McMann, and David Hutchison into service for the game.

The Clippers are at home Nov. 21 for a 9 p.m. match up with Cobourg.

Uxbridge Youth bowlers of month named

Tiffany Thompson, Tim Evangelista, Vincent Shanks, and Rob Tyndale were named Uxbridge Youth Bowling Council bowlers of the month for October in the Pee Wee, Bantam, Senior, and Junior categories respectively.

For September, the honors were picked up by Joanne Cicerella, Simon McEachern, Russ Fell, and Brianna Stark.

Today (Nov. 14) will see the local youth bowlers qualify for both the Golden Age and Bantam Tournament and the Master, Senior, Tyke Tournament.

Organizers are asking that youth bowlers who qualify but choose not to play contact Sharan or Brenda at Uxbridge Bowling so that another bowler can move up.

Four Uxbridge teams will participate in the next round of the Combo Tournament tomorrow (Sunday).
