

Bantam Clippers come back to tie highly rated Cobourg team

The Edwards-Murphy Bantam Clippers were in playoff mode when they overcame a 4-1 third period deficit to earn a 5-5 tie with highly rated Cobourg in a road encounter Nov. 10.

The Clippers scored four straight goals in the third to take a 5-4 lead, but Cobourg squared things just before the game was called on account of curfew.

The Painting platoon got a hat trick from Scott Assinck to pace the impressive comeback effort. Assinck netted a pair in the Clippers' third period rally, with John McKinnon and Roger McMann also clicking in the period.

McKinnon assisted on three goals, with Steve Wilcox and David Hutchison each picking up a pair of assists. Single set ups went to McMann, Ian Ellis, and Don Wilkie.

Team spokesman Dave Smart said it took the edge off the thrill of coming back when Cobourg tied it again. "It was a great confidence builder to come back after being three goals down, but a little disheartening not to be able to hold the third period lead," said Smart. The Clippers recorded their 12th win of the season Friday night when goaltenders Brad Hackert and Evan Boyd blanked Port Hope 3-0. Peter Smith, Wilcox, and McKinnon clicked for Stouf-ville, with assists coming from Wilkie, McKinnon, Hutchison, and McMann. The Clippers host Peterborough Friday night at 9:15 p.m. at the Rec Centre, before heading to Cobourg for a weekend tournament.

Harper hot as Minor Atom Clippers win twice

Eric Harper was holding the hot stick, scoring four goals and earning two assists to lead the Aikens Minor Atom Clippers to a pair of wins last week.

Harper clicked twice and added an assist in the Clippers' 5-2 triumph over Port Perry, then duplicated the feat in Stouffville's 8-2 victory versus Whitby.

David Brown, Blair Cain, and Rob Howie had single goals against Port Perry, while Lukas Williams, Casey Maude, Matt Prentice, and Ryan Jones had assists.

Fontana and Cain also scored two goals apiece in the Whitby game. Howie and Brent Meyer had solos. Prentice contributed three assists, while Brown set up two scores. Other assists went to Justin Heyworth, Jones, Jon Hermanson, Fontana, and Howie.
