A Country Christmas

The Tribune will be running a Victorian-style Christmas edition prior to the prime shopping season to welcome visitors to our area. This special section will be a guide to the best in shopping, dining and Yuletide festivities in the country. As well, a schedule of Christmas events, celebrity holiday recipes, community programs, music, crafts, bazaars and art shows will be featured. Advertisers can act now to book space in this collectible edition. Community churches, groups and organizations holding a special event can call, fax or drop in to have events featured. Restaurants, bars and country clubs can promote Christmas banquets, New Year's parties or other holiday happenings in our special section.
