By their own words, politicians are revealed

Dear Editor,
 Some quotable quotes:
 "I'll mortgage Canada to buy a new constitution." (P.M. Brian)
 "We are extremely frugal. My friend, the new Hydro boss, will only get a paltry half-million." (Premier Bob)
 "I will dump everything and listen to no one." (Minister Ruth)
 "Tax revolt is looming." (The former "Bad Boy?")

"I love deals and adore the curved corners of this $42/65/75 million Taj Mahal!" (Chairman Eldred)
 "Give me a break and dump the Region. Its is run by an 'old boys' club' and the 'Markham Mob'. It costs us many millions!" (Councillor David)
 "We are going to save money by hiring consultants to study and to advise a commission, which, in turn, will decide my decisions." (Mayor Fran)

 "I am elected to borrow and spend. No ratepayer will bully me." (Councillor Bob)
 "Politicians and lawyers are more crooked than a mare's hind leg." (Local farmer)

 "Help! I am taxed out of my pants." (Joe Taxpayer)
 "Eighty-two per cent of Canadians trust their doctors, 78 per cent trust police, 13 per cent trust ex-convicts and 11 per cent trust politicians." (From a recent poll)

 Enough said!

A. Zakis,

BRANCH 170 ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION

From Comrade Dick Jones
 Poppy Chairman

I wish to thank the people of Uxbridge and the businesses for their continuing generosity in support of our poppy campaign. I am not publishing the names of contributors this year for two reasons: The state of the economy; and being unable to canvass all businesses. Therefore, the omission of names would be unavoidable.

Special thanks to the veterans, cadets and the many who volunteered to brave the cold and canvass on Poppy Days. Thanks to the stores who made a space on their counters for our poppy boxes.

The Remembrance Day Ceremony & Parade was a success due to the help & co-operation of the Durham Region Police, the Township of Uxbridge Roads Dept., St. John's School, the Uxbridge Secondary School Band, the Legion Band and the Uxbridge Coral Society. Many thanks to you all, and a special thanks to the Ladies Auxilliary for the lunch after the parade.
