Ryan new RC board chair

Markham trustee Terry Ryan will take over as chair of the York Region Roman Catholic Separate School Board.

Ryan was first elected to the board in 1982 and has since represented the Catholic ratepayers and students of Markham Wards 4 and 5. Ryan ran against 1992 chair Nora Sullivan and Ryan was declared the 1993 chair following a close vote last Tuesday night. During his decade as trustee, he sat on all major committees and served as vice-chair of the board and chair of the education committee. Ryan is currently director of the Ontario Separate School Trustees Association.

Vaughan trustee Rocco Barrila was acclaimed vice chair of the board. French language section trustees chose Jean-Jacques Arseneault as chair and Fran Hill as vice-chair.

The public board was to announce a new chair tonight.
