Unionville scouts collect bottles

SCOUTS BOTTLE DRIVE
The 1st Unionville Scouts need our help. They are fundraising so they can participate in the Canadian Jamboree in Kananaskis (near Banff) next summer.

On Saturday, Jan. 2, 35 scouts and more than 100 cubs will be scouring Unionville for empty returnable bottles, including milk jugs. Please help by saving all your empties for collection on that day.

CHRISTMAS EVE PARTY HAS IT ALL

Some people really know how to celebrate Christmas, with goodwill, strong fellowship, great food and glorious music. For the past 40 (!) years, Frank and Ruth Lewarne have opened their hearts and home to friends, neighbours and family on Christmas Eve. And what a family!

Somewhere between 26 and 30 stockings adorn the mantle depending upon which of the 10 children and their spouses and 14 grandchildren are in town.

Unionville Highlights

Kathryn Winning

Sumptuous smells emanate from the kitchen - brisket, baked ham and Ruth's own home-baked herb breads, short-breads, and other baking.

And most wonderful of all is the joyous singing of traditional carols. This warm and friendly family is also very gifted.

With grandchildren who sing in the Canadian Children's Opera Chorus, and daughter Diane singing the swing leads and understudying Carlotta in Phantom, the carols are sung in four-part harmony, often with a ringing descant as well.

For our young daughters, this annual celebration is part of their Christmas tradition, and as we tramp home through the snow, enjoying the lights and the crisp night air, we reflect on the true meaning of Christmas - a time for peace, fellowship and goodwill to all people. The Lewarnes know all about that.

Happy New Year, everyone!
