

Festival fun... for everyone

The 1993 edition of the Strawberry Festival was made terrific by great weather, great crowds and great organization.
