Strawberry queen Jeni Montgomery says thank you

Dear Editor,

It has been my pleasure to represent the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville as Miss Whitchurch-Stouffville Strawberry Queen for the past two years.

The many experiences and opportunities that I have had while working with the people of our town will be something that I will always cherish.

From giving a ribbon to a goose in the annual pet contest at the Strawberry Festival, to being auctioned off to help raise funds for the Rotary Club, I never knew what I would be called upon to do next.

I was proud to represent Whitchurch-Stouffville at the Markham Fair and then at the Canadian National Exhibition.

It was my privilege to participate in the town's many festivities such as the Music Festival, the Town Athletic Awards, the Santa Claus Parades and enjoyed being in the Springvale Baptist Church's Christmas production.

Thank you, Mayor Fran Sainsbury for your support and encouragement.

Thanks to The Tribune for the excellent coverage and complimentary articles over the past two years.

A very special thank you to Bunny Burton for all the wonderful pageants she has organized through the years - especially her last one!

To all those who have donated their time and resources in those endeavors, I say a big thank you.

I have made many friends and will cherish many memories. Thank you Stouffville!

Dear Jim,
Great news! You were right. Sincerely Yours is the best! I called and replied to the tall adventurous redhead. Guess what? I'm meeting her tonight. Let you know how it goes.
Sincerely Yours
Peter
