Coming Soon to Your Mailbox ... the Power to Save Energy!

If you are a Whitchurch Stouffville residential customer, the Power Saver™ Check-up Questionnaire is coming to you soon. This program is designed to help you save money - by saving energy in your home.

If you live in a single family dwelling (with individual electricity metering), have lived there for over 8 months, you will be receiving your Home Power Saver Check-up Questionnaire in the mail.

When you receive it, please fill out the questionnaire, and return it in the postage paid envelope provided.

You will then receive a report which will show you how you can save energy in your home, how much money these savings could add up to and how your home could be more comfortable.

Dowswell family reunion in park

PERRY A WINNER

Latcham Gallery director, Vanessa Perry, won an honorable mention for photography at the 32nd Annual Toronto Outdoor Art Exhibition, which ran July 9 to 11 at Nathan Phillips Square. Perry, one of 28 photographers in the show, was judged on her overall work, which consisted of 20 framed and a number of unframed black and white hand-colored prints.

65th REUNION IN PARK

162 years after Thomas Dowswell arrived in Canada from Devonshire, England, a large contingent of his descendants gathered at Memorial Park Saturday for their 65th family reunion.

"There's only a couple of years we missed during the Second World War," explained family representative Mike Kenny. "Last year there were four generations represented. We have people from Maryland, British Columbia and the East Coast and we have a historian that looks after all our books. The age group is from about from 14 to 87. Some of our relatives are from Stouffville and about 85 per cent of our reunions are held here."

SLIDE PRESENTATION

Susanne Hilton, a Northwest Coast ethnologist who lives in Stouffville, will give a slide presentation on traditional and contemporary Northwest Coast native cultures at Latcham Gallery tonight (July 21). "I'm going to be giving an overview - talking a little bit about the cultures and some of the ceremonial life," explained Hilton. "I've done all of my research on the Northwest Coast and I have some really old slides taken from some of the earlier anthropologists. I also have some contemporary slides I took myself of some of the potlatches and totem poles that have been carved within my generation." The thrust of her presentation will be cultural rather than political, said Hilton, but she welcomes questions from the audience on all aspects of the topic. All interested residents are invited to attend her talk, which is part of the gallery's current exhibition, "Reminders of their Presence."

POOL ATTENDANCE UP

The beautiful summer weather has given a big boost to attendance at the Whitchurch-Stouffville pool over last year, and enrollment for the current session of swimming lessons is mostly at capacity. A few spots are still available for sessions three (August 3-13) and four (August 16-27). For more information, call the recreation department at 640-6527.

GROUP DONATION

A cheque for $1,500 was presented to Markham Stouffville Hospital Friday night by the Zephyr Family Day Committee. Kim Everson of Stouffville Florist is a member of the group. "We hold a Monte Carlo night every year, usually on Mother's Day weekend," she explained. "We get a lot of donations from around this area. People gamble all night and at the end of the night we have an auction of everything that's donated. Any money raised on this night we donate to a hospital."
