

Champions decided in Playsafe finals

The Playsafe Ball Hockey League completed its second season recently with the Playsafe Cup Championship finals for all three of its divisions. Fairpark Homes won the junior division championship with a 6-0 win over Beaver Gas.

Chris Gillespie scored three goals for Fairpark while Nathan Brock, Andrew Dawe, and B.J. Rossie put in a goal each past Beaver. Steven Johnstone had the shutout for Fairpark Homes.

In the women's division, the Dragons were still on fire from their Ontario Provincial Championship two weeks ago as they captured Playsafe's first championship in a women's division. The final score was a 5-1 kill over the Bruins. Andria Hunter led the outfit scoring three goals while Kelly Weaver helped with the other two. The lone Bruins goal was elicited from Nancy Hart of Uxbridge.

The men's division championship was vied for by the Bouwmeister Lynx and the 1992 defending champions, the Warriors. The Bouwmeister team prevailed 6-2.

Dave Blenkin, Shawn Cussion, Mark Purcell, Doug McClain, Glavin Backus, and Jaz Dhiman scored a goal for the winners.

For the Warriors, it was Phil Cappelo and Ralph DiRoma.

No OBA title for Indians

The Stouffville Indians minor mosquitos fell short in its attempt to advance to the Ontario Baseball Association playdowns, dropping a decision to Bracebridge recently.

The Indians' luck did not improve in league play as they were downed 10-3 by Tottenham on Aug. 16. Dylan Harrison, Andy Gibson and Geoffrey Taylor played well in the outfield, with Shawn Burns, John Lyons, Andrew Keith and Jordan VanEsterik looking after the infield duties. Michael Hamilton and Michael Pennanen handled pitching duties.

The Indians resume league play in Bolton today.
