

ST Stouffville squirts win North York ball title

The Stouffville squirt girls' fastball team concluded its season on a strong note recently by capturing the North York Women's Fastball League post-season tournament.

The Stouffville entry met Oshawa in the final and came up with two victories in the double knockout event.

In the first game, Stouffville pitcher Amanda Crowder fanned 11 batters and was backed by great defensive work by Kari Sandiford to record an 8-7 win.

Lianne McKay had a three-run double while Crowder had two hits and Meghan Derry added one.

In the second game, Stouffville had an easier time of things and emerged with a 15-10 win.

Crowder struck out six batters and was the winning pitcher.

Cassie Gilroy collected three hits while great defensive plays were recorded by McKay and April Cody.

In reaching the final, Stouffville won its opening game over Aurora 10-2. Lynn Harrison fanned eight batters to earn the win.

Stouffville dropped their second game, however, to Oshawa 17-8.

In third-round action, Stouffville rebounded to edge the Markham Cougars 8-7. Harrison struck out nine batters to earn the win.

Crowder punched out three hits while McKay had two. Gilroy scored the game-winning run in the bottom of the seventh inning when she crossed home plate on a passed ball. Defensively, Marlee Johnson snared three fly balls.

That victory moved Stouffville into the final against Oshawa.

DON VALLEY NORTH LEXUS - TOYOTA

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

SHELLEY HINCH

As a figure skater, Shelley Hinch achieved a milestone of sorts this past summer. The 18-year-old Unionville Figure Skating Club performer earned her gold in dances. At the Unionville Club this is the highest mark that Hinch can achieve. In addition to her club achievement, Hinch recently became a member of the Kitchener - Queens Senior Precision Skating Club. Hinch will be skating with this team while attending the University of Guelph where she is entering her first year and plans to major in marketing.
