March of Dimes seeks volunteers

The Toronto/York/Durham Region of the Ontario March of Dimes is making plans for its 1994 winter fundraising campaign. Hundreds of volunteers will be needed across the region for a variety of fundraising activities. "Plans for this year's campaign include continuing our Ability Tree Program, a door-to-door canvass and a Speakers' Bureau that will visit service clubs in the region," said Denise Harding, Fundraising Co-ordinator for the region. "Volunteers are needed throughout the region for our Speakers' Bureau (public speaking) and area captains and canvassers are always needed for our door-to-door campaign."

The March of Dimes hopes to announce its campaign goal in December.

In the meantime, the organization's main focus is volunteer recruitment.

The Ontario March of Dimes offers increased mobility and independence to all of their clients.
