Answers sought by 'youngster' about deficit

Dear Editor,
My name is Jennifer, and I am six months old.
I can't write yet, so my daddy is writing this for me.
He says that my share of the accumulated federal, provincial and municipal deficits is about $200,000 and that means I would have to own my own house, mortgage-free, to have a net worth of absolutely nothing. This situation doesn't make much sense to me since I don't know what money is.

How could this happen, and can I get an answer of some sort via this letter?

Jennifer, 6 mos.
