Public Library Week starts Oct. 19

It's October and we're gearing up for our annual Ontario Public Library Week.

One week out of every October is designated Public Library Week and this year, the week is Tuesday, Oct. 19 to Saturday, Oct. 23.

In addition to the many day to day services, we are also offering some interesting events and ongoing contests.

Here are the highlights:

Tuesday, Oct. 19, 8-10 p.m.

Meet local artist, James Bessey, and enjoy his exhibit of watercolours at this opening reception.

Wednesday, Oct. 20, 7-7:30 p.m.

PJ Storytime for Tots and Teddies. Bring the wee ones dressed in PJs for their bedtime stories.

Thursday, Oct. 21

Patron Appreciation Day. Drop in for a free coffee and cookie while you're reading a newspaper or enjoying a magazine.

Friday, Oct. 22, 7:30-8:30 p.m.

"Slide into History" will be a visual review of local history as well as explaining how to research family and property.

Saturday, Oct. 23, 2-3 p.m.

Admission $1 at door. "Birds of Prey" - Come and see a live red-tailed hawk and make your own bird whistle.

For more information, pick up a brochure about these and other events happening at the library this month.
