

Good Neighbors campaign kicks off this week

The Good Neighbors council of Stouffville is hosting a launch day to kick off Good Neighbors week, which begins Saturday.

The Stouffville Lioness is doing their part by cooking up a delicious community-sized batch of pancakes for a special breakfast at the Silver Jubilee from 8-10 a.m. on Sat., Oct. 16. Cost is $3 for adults; seniors and children eat free with a contribution to the Whitchurch-Stouffville Foodbank. Then Town crier, Marcel Bossi will officially proclaim Good Neighbors Week - Take Time to Reach Out at Latcham Hall at 10:30 a.m. followed by a presentation to Mayor Fran Sainsbury of the Good Neighbors plaque and an award presentation to Durham-York MPP Larry O'Connor.

At noon, models will strut fashions at a fashion show luncheon at Angie's Eatery and then from 2-3 p.m. the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library will feature a special Good Neighbors video and display.

Finally from 3-4 p.m. there will be friendship cake and Tim Horton's Timbits, tea and coffee served at Latcham Hall.

Residents can view all sorts of displays by various community service groups from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Latcham Hall.

For more information about the local Good Neighbors council call 640-3349 or write to 6297 Main St., Stouffville, L4A 7Z9.

BABYFACE

You recognize them on the street today, but can you figure out which of these baby faces belongs to the 10 community figures we've asked to help us in our contest?
