A hands-on approach

Stouffville District Secondary School teacher Dave Connell (centre), has his hands full as he tries to intercept this pass that was intended for one of his students during Wednesday's physical education class. Connell's pick off attempt failed.

Atom Clippers gain split

Lukas Williams and Robbie Schimmell each scored two goals to pace the Aikens IDA atom Clippers to a 5-3 victory over Port Hope Saturday.

The win enabled the Stouffville squad to earn a weekend split after a 6-5 loss to Oshawa Friday.

Jonathan Hermanson also scored against Port Hope, with assists going to Matthew Prentice (2), Casey Maude (2), Ryan Jackson (2), David Brown, Brent Meyer, and Ryan Fontana.

It was Schimmell and Jackson with a pair of goals apiece in the loss to Oshawa. Meyer added the fifth marker. Brown, Williams, Justin Heyworth, and Meyer had assists.

Clippers take third in Kellington's oldtimers hockey event

Scarborough stole the show at the 10th annual Kellington's Classics oldtimers hockey tournament held at the Rec Centre last weekend.

Scarborough teams captured two of the five division championships Sunday, and were finalists in another, in the 20-team competition.

The Scarborough Classics defeated the Hogtown Hogs 5-3 to take the C division title, while it was the Scarborough Silver Devils over the Coca Cola Classics (Whitby) 6-5 in overtime in the D final.

The Malvern Elbow Benders edged the Scarborough Old Devils 3-2 in the E division championship.

It was Coxwell Sports over the Pickering Pot Bellies by a 3-1 count in the A final, while the Sideliners, a Markham-Stouffville area team, nipped Benick Painting of Mississauga 4-3 in the B title match.

The Betz Pools Clippers finished third in the C division, while the other local team, the Action Signs Raiders, were third in the B flight.

Clayson's four goals leads Play It Again to victory

Jessica Clayson notched four goals to lead Play It Again Sports to a 6-1 win over Stouffville Bowling in Whitchurch-Stouffville Girls Hockey Association junior division houseleague action Oct. 11.

Marlee Johnson and Karlee Dudley had single markers for the winners; with Christina Davies and Dudley earning assists.

Jacqui VanKoughnet scored the lone Stouffville Bowling goal from Jaime-Lyn Geldart.

Lisa Jacque had two goals and four assists to power Moller Insurance to a 7-2 win over Beaver Gas Bar.

Jennifer Davis had a goal and an assist for Beaver, with Michelle Dulude adding the second tally.

In senior division play, Kate Robson scored twice and Sarah Morrison chipped in with a solo as Stouffville Photographic defeated Freel Lane Kitchen Gallery 3-1.

Maggie Tracy and Kate Robson had assists for Stouffville Photographic.

Kristi Ingram scored for Freel Lane, with Amie Lear assisting.

Kathy Tait, Alison Edward, and Candice Miller lit the lamp as the Stouffville Kinsmen edged the Cole Group 3-2 in the other game.

Candice Miller, Kathy Tait, and Danielle Clarkson earned assists for Kinsmen.

Katie Sandiford and Jennifer Deacon had the Cole Group goals. Assists went to Jessica Smith (2) and Katie Sandiford.

Novice Clippers ice two road wins

Shawn Burns scored five goals in two games to lead the Ken and Neil Patrick novice Clippers to a pair of road wins last weekend.

Burns backed up the shutout goalkeeping of Scott Davis with two markers in Friday night's 5-0 Clippers victory.

Andy Gibson and Jordan Mabley each picked up a goal and an assist, with Brian Montgomery rounding out the scoring.

Mike Cornacchia, Jesse Miller, Rod Assinck,

Cameron Davis, and Andrew McKay also had assists.

Burns hit for the hat trick Sunday, while Mabley, Gibson, and Josh Brillinger added singles, as the Clippers downed the Peterborough Young Nationals 6-3. Assists went to Montgomery (2), Brad Paterson, Mabley, Gibson, Cornacchia, and Assinck. Forward Blair Loughhead filled in between the pipes for Davis, who became ill prior to the game.
